

RAD Competition Packet 2023-2024

Costume fees will be run with your December tuition on November 21st.

We ask that you start paying competition fees as soon as possible, but will be run on the given due dates below.

Costume Fees: Due with October tuition (Sept 21st)

- $75 per routine
- Covers costumes for large and small group pieces

What is not covered in costume fees?

- Costumes for solos, duets, trios. These will be approved by dancers, teachers and parents and then charged to your account on file and charged with November's tuition, unless otherwise communicated by the choreographer.
- Required dance shoes. These will be available to purchase in the pro shop, please make sure you have the required shoes for each routine as well as the appropriate shoes for class. A list of required dance shoes will be posted to the Competition Team Band page.
- Appropriate underclothing to wear with your costume, including tights (options will be available to purchase in the pro shop). These are your responsibility to purchase as you need them. A small selection will be brought to competition in case dancers forget them and will be put on the dancers account.

Coaches Fees

- Fees will vary depending on the competition/convention. Estimated fees are listed below for each competition
